Clarifying Roles: Whom do I contact if I have a question?

Faculty Leader, Dr. John Carroll: Academics and course registration, program itinerary, general questions about program in Botswana, lodging and other accommodations.

Education Abroad Coordinator, Allison Hinelsey: Passport questions, Myworld application items, program budget, scholarships and financial aid.

Withdraw Policy: With the payment of your commitment deposit, you are now “committed” to the program. Please review the Fees and Payments page of the Education Abroad website and the withdrawal policy listed on the program budget sheet.

Please note that if a program participant should not meet the deadlines outlined in the “Tasks and Deadlines” handout, UNL Education Abroad reserves the right to withdraw the participant from the program and the withdrawal policy would apply.

Thank you and please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions! I look forward to working with you over the coming semester in preparation for the Botswana program!
